Piano
Technique
1. All major and harmonic minor scales. At a minimum, 2 octaves in both parallel and contrary motion in eighth notes at metronome marking 120 to the quarter. Preference will be given to students that can perform parallel scales 4 octaves in sixteenth notes.
2. I-IV-I-V7-I cadences in all keys.
3. Arpeggios in all white key major and minors. At a minimum, 2 octaves hands separately; preference will be given to students that can perform hands together 4 octaves in sixteenth notes.
4. A pedagogical technical etude by composers such as Czerny, Cramer, Heller, etc. Preference will be given to students that can prepare an artistic performance etude by composers such as Chopin, Liszt, Rachmaninoff, or Scriabin.

Repertoire
Prospective students should prepare 2 pieces from the standard classical piano repertoire, one of which should be a sonata movement or single-movement sonata. It is expected that each piece represent a different style period, i.e. Baroque, Classical, Romantic, Contemporary. Each selection must be performed by memory.

Sight-Reading
Potential piano majors must demonstrate an acceptable proficiency in sight-reading. Minimum expectations are the ability to fluently sight-read a late-elementary/early intermediate level classical miniature by pedagogical composers such as Gurlitt, Turk, Bartok, Kabalevsky, etc.

Voice (Copies of accompaniment should be provided)
Two prepared pieces; a repertoire list of solos sung should be provided.
